

Securitas Diplomatic Services

Embassies, representations and International organizations have specific needs regarding security. Securitas Diplomatic Services has developed an exclusive range of services tailored to the diplomatic world.

An expertise in security services for diplomatic organizations.

SECURITAS is the leader in this area with well-known references amongst its customers. Our company developed a know-how, specific services and trainings for its guards adapted to the needs of the diplomatic world.

A personalized service according to the special needs of each diplomatic entity.

The multilingual security officers are selected and trained according to the missions they ensure. Uniforms are also personalized.

The guards are managed by an expert in diplomatic security.

A capacity of reserve and a flexibility that corresponds to your specific needs.

(crises, events)

About 3700 guards are working for SECURITAS, 1000 of them are dedicated to the diplomatic organizations.

Powerful technical structures are at the disposal of the security guards and the customers.

SECURITAS is a leader as to offering high standard technological support to its guards.

The motivation of our guards is an essential asset.

Each day, they protect our customers and they ensure the quality of our services. SECURITAS offers a unique follow-up of each guard, competitive wages and real advantages comparing to the general level of the sector.

What makes the difference

- Experts in diplomatic security
- Wide range of services: Security Agent, Front Desk, Bodyguard, VIP Driver...
- Personalized service and follow-up according to your specific needs (profile, language, uniform, risk...)
- Immediate response to your specific or urgent needs.
- Powerful technical structure
- Motivated people with efficient follow-up

References

- European Commission
- Council of the European Union
- United States of America's Embassy
- Canada's Embassy
- Irish Representation to the European Union
- Austria's Mission
- Baden-Württemberg's Representation to the European Union

