

PROPOSAL OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF SECURITAS AB (PUBL) FOR GUIDELINES FOR REMUNERATION TO SENIOR MANAGEMENT

The Board of Directors of Securitas AB (publ) proposes that the Annual General Meeting on May 4, 2010 adopts guidelines for remuneration to senior management in accordance with the following;

The fundamental principle is that remuneration and other terms of employment for management shall be competitive and in accordance with market conditions, in order to ensure that the Securitas Group will be able to attract and keep competent management employees.

The total remuneration to management shall consist of a fixed basic salary, variable remuneration, pensions and other benefits. In addition to a fixed annual salary the Group Management may also receive variable remuneration, based on the outcome in relation to financial goals and growth targets within the individual area of responsibility (Group or division) and agree with the interest of the shareholders. The variable remuneration shall amount to a maximum of 60 percent of the fixed annual salary for the President and CEO and a maximum of 42 –200 percent of the fixed annual salary for other individuals of the Group Management. If cash payment of variable remuneration has been effected on grounds later proven to be obviously inaccurate, the company shall have the possibility to reclaim such paid remuneration.

The increased limits compared to previous years are conditioned upon the Annual General Meeting approving the proposed Incentive Scheme as per item 15 in the agenda. Should this proposal not be carried, the variable remuneration limits shall remain at a maximum of 50 percent of the fixed annual salary for the President and CEO and a maximum of 35 to 200 percent of the fixed annual salary for other individuals of the Group Management.

The undertakings of the company as regards variable remuneration may, at maximal outcome during 2010, amount to a maximum of MSEK 58. Previously decided remuneration that has not yet been paid can be found in Note 8 of the Annual Report for 2009.

The pension rights of senior management employees shall be applicable as from the age of 65 at the earliest and the entire Group Management shall be subject to defined contribution pension plans for which insurance premiums are transferred from the individual's total remuneration and paid by the company during the term of employment. Variable compensation shall not qualify for pension purposes unless local regulations provide otherwise.

Other benefits, such as company car, special health insurance or occupational health service shall be provided to the extent this is considered customary for management employees holding equivalent positions on the employment market where the management employee is active.

At dismissal, the notice period for all management employees shall amount to a maximum of 12 months with a right to redundancy payment after the end of the notice period, equivalent to a maximum of 100 per cent of the fixed salary for a period not exceeding 12 months. At resignation by a management employee, the notice period shall amount to a maximum of six months.

These guidelines shall apply to individuals who are included in the Group Management during the term of application of these guidelines. The guidelines shall apply to agreements entered into after the adoption by the Annual General Meeting, and to changes made in existing agreements after this date. The Board shall be entitled to deviate from the guidelines in individual cases if there are particular grounds for such deviation.
