

The Board's statement on the evaluation performed by the Remuneration Committee on the remuneration of senior management

The Board of Securitas AB has established a Remuneration Committee, which since the Statutory Board Meeting on May 3, 2017 and for the period until the 2018 Annual General Meeting consists of Marie Ehrling, Chairman of the Committee, and Carl Douglas. One of the tasks of the Remuneration Committee is to monitor and evaluate all programs for variable remuneration to senior management, the application of the guidelines for remuneration to senior management adopted by the Annual General Meeting as well as existing compensation levels and structures in the company.

As per Article 10.3 of the Swedish Corporate Governance Code, the Board hereby submits its statement on the results of the evaluation completed by the Remuneration Committee.

The Remuneration Committee has continuously reviewed and evaluated the company's programs for variable remuneration to senior management as well as the guidelines for remuneration to senior management. The outcome of the programs for variable remuneration was presented at the meeting of the Remuneration Committee on January 24, 2018, whereby it was concluded that the programs were well suited for their purposes and that this remuneration, as well as all other remuneration to senior management during 2017, were in compliance with the guidelines for remuneration adopted by the Annual General Meeting. Taking this into account, it was also noted that the guidelines have fulfilled their intended purposes and have had the desired effects. The Committee therefore concludes that the application of the guidelines has been correct. The Committee has also reviewed and evaluated the compensation structures and levels in place within the company and has concluded that these levels are in line with market practice and are well balanced.

The Securitas Incentive Scheme was adopted for the first time by the Annual General Meeting in 2010. In 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016 and 2017, almost identical programs were adopted. The programs have been well received and the participants in the 2016 Incentive Scheme received their shares in early March 2018. All in all, a total of approximately 1,350 employees will share a total of approximately 1,100,000 shares (prior to the sale of certain shares to cover applicable taxes in each jurisdiction). Adjustment has been made for the employees who have left Securitas at the time of allotment. The Committee notes that Incentive Scheme shares were purchased at SEK 74 per share (2011), SEK 61 (2012), SEK 62 (2013), SEK 70 (2014), SEK 117 (2015), SEK 130 (2016) and SEK 139 (2017) and that the shares are currently trading at around SEK 144 (on March 12, 2018). In addition, dividends have been paid either in cash or in additional shares which increases the return on investment.

The Committee concludes that the outcome of the Incentive Schemes is in line with expectations. The existing programs will be continuously monitored during 2018 and onwards.
