Gisela Lindstrand leaves Securitas

Gisela Lindstrand, Senior Vice President Corporate Communications and Public Affairs at Securitas AB, has resigned for a similar position at another company.

Gisela Lindstrand has lead Securitas Group's branding and communications since 2007. During this period, Securitas has become the leader in the transformation of the global security industry, from traditional guarding to a much broader spectrum of protective services. In this Group strategy work, the branding and communications activities have been crucial.

"Gisela Lindstrand has successfully developed Securitas' global communications and thereby contributed to strengthen Securitas' brand and global position", says Securitas President and CEO Alf Göransson.

Gisela Lindstrand will leave Securitas at the latest in May 2018 and will until then remain as member of Securitas Group Management.
