The Court of Appeal has decided to overrule the decision by the Stockholm District Court regarding falsified bankruptcy application

The Court of Appeal has decided to overrule the decision by the Stockholm District Court to declare Securitas' President and CEO Alf Göransson bankrupt.

On July 10, 2017, Alf Göransson was declared bankrupt by the Stockholm District Court, without any contact before the decision. The decision by the Stockholm District Court was based on a falsified application, where Alf Göransson filed for bankruptcy. The incident was reported to the police and the decision was appealed to the Court of Appeal, which today in the afternoon set aside the bankruptcy decision.

The Swedish Companies Registration Office decided, as a consequence of the Stockholm District Court's decision, to de-register Alf Göransson as the company's President and CEO. The Swedish Companies Registration Office now has to restore the former registration without delay.
