Securitas Group appoints Matteo Dall'Ora as new CFO

Securitas' focus remains on becoming the leading intelligent security solutions partner for our clients by combining our extensive presence with connected technology and intelligent use of data.

Securitas Group is pleased to announce the appointment of Matteo Dall'Ora as Chief Financial Officer. Matteo will join the company during the second quarter of 2026 and will succeed Andreas Lindback, who has decided to step down. All other Group Management members continue in their current roles.

"I am delighted to welcome Matteo Dall'Ora to Securitas, where his business leadership experience from driving growth in service-led industries will be very valuable. Matteo also has a solid background in finance, complemented by a proven track record in IT, acquisitions and operational excellence. His significant international experience and strong leadership capabilities make him well-suited for this important role," says Magnus Ahlqvist, President and CEO of Securitas.

Matteo joins from ASSA ABLOY, where his most recent role was Head of Europe for the Industrial segment. Prior to that, he held the position of SVP and CFO for ASSA ABLOY's EMEIA division since 2020, and before that, he spent 12 years at Atlas Copco in a range of management roles.

"I am honoured to be appointed CFO of Securitas. Securitas is a global leader with a strong purpose, a clear strategy and a proven ability to evolve in a changing environment. I look forward to working closely with Magnus Ahlqvist, the Group Management team and colleagues across the organization to support the continued execution of the strategy, drive profitable growth and create long-term value for clients, employees and shareholders," says Matteo Dall'Ora.

direction and operational excellence. Previously, Matteo was SVP CFO for ASSA ABLOY's EMEIA division, driving financial performance and supporting growth initiatives across the region.

Before joining ASSA ABLOY in 2020, Matteo spent 12 years at Atlas Copco, holding a range of management roles in Slovenia, Italy, and Belgium. His final position at Atlas Copco was VP of Business Control for the service division, where he oversaw financial performance and business development across multiple markets.

Matteo Dall'Ora holds a degree in Economics from Gea College, Ljubljana, Slovenia and has completed executive programs at the Stockholm School of Economics (SSE).
