

Proposal from shareholder Claus-Christian Gärtner (item 18 on the agenda)

“Commissioning of an independent investigation for incidents of corruption, personal advantage, personal enrichment, coercion and sexual harassment and exploitation of wards at Securitas Germany. The investigation should show the impact on the economics of the company as well as on the staff motivation. Of particular interest is the focus on the review of activities of the Top and Middle Level executives who were former executives at the Ministry for State Security of the GDR.”
